His Alcoholic Whiskers.

A peculiar, painful, and extremely annoying mishap befoll Wm. H. Harper, of Butte City, last night. Mr. Harper is a miner who arrived in Tacoma yesterday morning from the East, accompanied by an abnormal appetite for strong drink and a large, luxuriant beard, of which he is very proud. After depositing his baggage in a South Railroad street lodging-bouse, Mr. Harper started out to see the sights, taking his appetite and beard along. During the course of the day system craved, and would have prolonged the festivities until far into the night. But a: 9 o'clock a kindly-disposed stranger a: 9 o'clock a kindly-disposed stranger steered the inebriated miner to his lodging-house and put him into his room.

Here Mr. Harper attempted to light the gas. The jet was suspended from the celling in the centre of the room, and in reaching up the drunken man dropped the burning match into his flowing whiskers, rendered highly inflammable by the liquour spilled into them during the day. With a wild how the gentleman from Butte deshed out and Fertilizer Drills, Wagons, Road Carts and how! the gentleman from Butte dashed out into the hall with his face and head blazing into the hall with his hes and head sizzing like a campaign torch.

"For God's sake, put me out," yelled the unfortunate men as he dashed back and forth slong the hall, clawing madly at the flames with bis bands and nearly stiffed.

A man in the next room heard the cries and came flying out with rare presence of sixed a heart of mater which he poursed. mind and a bowl of water, which he poured on Mr. Harper's bead. An instant later the hotel porter strived with a large and very dusty door mat, with which he suc-ceeded in effectually subduing the confiagration. Mr. Harper was also quite subed to know if an alarm had been turned in before he realized just what had happened Instead of sending for the fire department a doctor was called in, who anoisted the enf-ferer's glorified face with libsaed oil and lime water. In addition to his hair and whiskers, Mr. Harper also lost his eyebrows and several patches of skin, besides one night's sleep that he paid for in advance, but he is in a fair way to recover, and will be all right in a few days. It is said that he will immediately return to Batte City toraise a new crop of whiskers.—Tacoma

A BEICK HOUSE UNDER SAIL .- An extraordinary craft lay at anchor on Sunday morning in the mouth of the Great Kille, Staten Island. The fishermen gazed at her in amazement. She is somewhat primitive in form, for it is evident that her designer took her lines from the model of Nosh's Ark. But on deck she departs perhaps a little from the original in the building which is erected there. This building is a red brick house, but it is said that the bricks are made of wood to keep the vessel within strictly orthodex lines. In appearance the thing is a schooner rigged house, one of the queerest looking affairs ever seen with sails. But the strangest thing about her is her Lotson Columbis and Washington streets speed. She can travel at a rapid rate, although she is simply a huge scow. On Sun-day afternoon during a fierce and puffy CASH PAYMENTS FROM $10 TO $25 reefed, she came out of the Kille flying her topssi's, and the way she walked off made the skippers of the oyster fleet stare at each balance in small monthly payments, without interest. Final payment will entitle purchaser to a deed free of cost.

other. Her captain, or landlord, as the case may be, is certainly the proprietor of a a fast establishment. When leaving the Kills she pa-sed within halling distance of a boat with a screw of jolly anglers on board. Noticing one of the occupants of the ark, one of the rod and reel men shouted to him : " Hello, Ham! Is your father at home?"

No response o me from the red brick manelon as it glided off toward the upper bay .- New York Sun. 27th.

BEAR AND TRAP. - The Shenandoan Herald says: "A week or ten days ago, Mr. Harvey Riffery, living near the mountain west of St. Luke, this county, set a large steel bear trap in the mountain several m ilee from his home. On visiting the place a few mornings after, he found that the bear had been caught, but had gone off with the trap. For some distance the trail was plain, but was finally lost, and the most careful search by Mr. R flory and a number of others has not resulted in finding the big game. Some days ago a Mr. Hieshman, of Hardy county, West Va, was crossing the mountain back of Liberty Furnace, when has as a heaven for the state of the state his hors a became frightened at the eight of (60) a huge black hear standing in the road with a large steel trap firmly fastened to his front 40,000 leg. Mr. Hieshtoan approached it carefully, 50,000 and by shouting and throwing stones soared it away far enough to each him to pass 15,000 with his team. A number of the Liberty and St. Luke hunters have since been cut MAGILL SMITH, A.M., Principal. iy10 tw2m scourging the mountains, but without suc-$524.950 COSP.

MEDICINAL.

If you wake up in the morning with a bitter or bad taste in your mouth, Languor, Dull Headache, Despondency, Constipa-tion, take Simmons Liver Regulator. It corrects the bilious stomach, sweetens the breath and cleanses the furred tongue. Children as well as adults sometimes eat something that does not digest well, producing Sour Stomach, Heartburn, Restlessness, or Sleeplessness—a good dose of Regulator will give relief. So perfectly harmless is this remedy that it can be taken by the youngest infant or the most delicate person without injury, no matter what the condition of the system may be. It can do no harm if it does no good, but its reputation for 40 years proves it never fails in doing good.
